UNLOCK INDIA unleash imagination

“In India, everything, everybody is palpably more. People and objects are never easily definable, each a hubbub of identities, puzzling gestures, motley rhythms, and unbounded, numinous colours. Here is a perceptual face-to-face with what we all really are: a joyous mystery.

What more could a filmmaker ask for? Coming to India, a filmmaker comes home to his imagination.”

ANUP SINGH, FILMMAKER

“We had an incredible experience shooting portions of Mission: Impossible—Ghost Protocol in India. With dynamic locations and a welcoming community, India provided the perfect backdrop for an exciting and action-packed blockbuster film.”

FILM IN INDIA

Connect and collaborate with India, an Eco-sphere of stories, locales, resources, and talent.

India in a nutshell is a land of stories and a melting pot of emotions. It narrates itself through breathtaking landscapes — imposing Himalayas, stark Ladakh, arid Thar Desert in Rajasthan,

India also has a talent pool of actors, producers, directors, writers and experienced crew including competent line producers across the many regional film industries backwaters of Kerala, dense forests of Madhya Pradesh, snaking rivers across the Deccan Plateau, gorgeous valleys of Himachal Pradesh and the pristine Gangetic deltas of the Sunderbans in Bengal. And it expresses itself via age-old, man-made splendours like the Taj Mahal, the mythological narratives at the Ghats of River Ganges, and the cultural clans of the Seven Sisters in the North-East of India. Little wonder then that films shot in India pulsate with life. Coming to India, a filmmaker comes home to his imagination!

With a diverse range of production and post production facilities pan India, the country offers multiple well-equipped film production hubs. Ahmedabad, Bengaluru, Bhopal, Chandigarh, Chennai, Cuttack, Delhi, Guwahati, Hyderabad, Imphal, Jaipur, Kolkata, Lucknow, Mumbai, Panaji, Patna, Ranchi and Thiruvananthapuram also double-up as visually-stimulating spots thanks to their cosmopolitan vibes.

In addition, India also has a talent pool of actors, producers, directors, writers and experienced crew including competent line producers across the many regional film industries. The low production cost, favourable dollar-rupee exchange rate and an upcoming National Centre of Excellence in Animation, Visual Effects, Gaming and Comics, enhances India's attractiveness as a filming destination. And finally, a cinema-loving audience eager to see their own locations in foreign films.

WHO TO APPROACH

“After every take (when the director) called ‘cut’, there was loud cheer. We felt like rock stars in a stadium. But the warmth and support we got while shooting there — no matter how disruptive we were to their daily lives — it was so good. People were so positive. I have huge appreciation for that”

CHRIS HEMSWORTH, HOLLYWOOD ACTOR, COURTESY HINDUSTAN TIMES EDITION DATED OCT 11, 2019

Leveraging this country's diversity becomes imperative while achieving creative collaborations on a global scale. It is more so when it comes to collating and managing filmic resources on ground, available within the country. This is where a structured body like the Film Facilitation Office (FFO) comes in.

The Ministry of Information & Broadcasting, Government of India, set up the FFO in the National Film Development Corporation (NFDC) with a view to promote and facilitate film shootings by foreign filmmakers in India. The services rendered by the FFO have now been extended to foreign and domestic filmmakers in India.

It acts as a single-window facilitation and clearance mechanism that eases filming in India, as well as endeavouring to create a film-friendly ecosystem and promoting the country as a filming destination. The institution of the 'Most Film Friendly State' Award, which was won by the State of Gujarat in 2015, the State of Uttar Pradesh in 2016, State of Madhya Pradesh in 2017 and the State of Uttarakhand in 2018, is a unique initiative in this direction.

Awareness is the key and FFO is conducting workshops with filmmakers, officials and other stakeholders to make the process smoother.

GUIDE TO FILMING in India

The FFO has set up its web portal www.ffa.gov.in to enable online submission of applications from both domestic and international filmmakers. For further information, please visit the web portal or write to ffa@nfdcindia.com.

International Filmmakers seeking National Permission - Proposals regarding shooting of feature films, TV / Web shows & series and TV / Web Reality shows & series are handled by the Film Facilitation Office of the Ministry of Information & Broadcasting, which will process the request and take a decision within a specific time frame. However, permissions for shooting in border areas will take longer due to security reasons.

Once the Ministry of Information & Broadcasting approves a project proposal, Indian Missions abroad will grant Film [F] Visa to the project team.

Domestic and International Filmmakers seeking State and Local Permissions - Location specific permissions are processed and issued by respective State Nodal officers, whose details are also shared with the applicant. The FFO facilitates accordance of these permissions.

COLLABORATIONS WITH INDIAN FILMMAKERS

Make use of the various international audio-visual co-production treaties signed by the Government of India to collaborate with acclaimed Indian filmmakers and gain wider market accessibility.

India has co-production treaties with Bangladesh, Brazil, Canada, China, France, Germany, Italy, Israel, Korea, New Zealand, Poland, Russia, Spain and UK & Northern Ireland to enable co-creation of content and collaboration between talent.
